FRED GEBHARDT SCHOLARSHIP AWARD

The Hillsborough Secondary Music Council will be sponsoring their 18th annual Fred Gebhardt Scholarship Award to seniors who attended the leadership camp being held at Strawberry Crest High School on June 20 – 23, 2022. The requirements are as follows:

- Must write at least a 300-word essay on “What Leadership Means to Me.” Please explain what you learned at the leadership camp, how you used what you learned in your leadership role, and how it can be useful to you in future endeavors. You can include experiences in band, chorus, orchestra or guard.
- Be sure to complete the Personal Information Form with your name and school so that all entries will only be known to Mr. Hope. DO NOT include your name, your director’s name or your school’s name on the essay. Applications that includes the name of the school or directors name will be disqualified.
- The due date for essay submission is no later than October 10, 2022. This essay must be submitted via email to Ted Hope, Supervisor of Middle/Secondary Music to:

ted.hope@sdhc.k12.fl.us

- The winner will be announced at the Florida Bandmaster’s Association District Marching Performance Assessment on October 29th at Gaither High School, or at the All-County event next January.

Mrs. Lee Gebhardt will read the essays and select the winner. She will also be at the Marching Band Festival to present the award.

- There will be at least two winners, from either Band, Chorus, Orchestra or Guard. Each will receive $500. They will also be recognized in all future All-County programs.

If you have any further questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Ted M. Hope, Ed.S
